VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the System.

Its Medical Properties are

Alterative, Tonic, Solvent & Diuretic.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully-selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated, that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scaldhead and Ringworm, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the VEGETINE. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by VEGETINE have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, VEGETINE is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

PREPARED BY

H. R. Stevens, BOSTON, MASS.

What is VEGETINE?—It is a compound, extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers; for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them rest—sweet sleep—as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great blood purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the VEGETINE. Give it fair trial for your complaints; then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it: it has cured me."

VEGETINE for the complaints for which it is recommended, is having a larger sale throughout the United States than any other one medicine. Why? Vegetine will cure those complaints.

Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec. 12, 1869.

Gentlemen—My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the VEGETINE, and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently, I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man, and my skin is smooth and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of the VEGETINE's wonderful power of curing me of this same complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

Newport Daily News.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1876.

GENERAL NEWS.

BY CABLE.

A TOWN DESTROYED BY FIRE.

LONDON, July 25.

The town of Alberne, Switzerland, was totally destroyed by fire on the 20th.

No News.

BELGRADE, July 25.

No news in regard to the Servo-Turkish war has been received from the front since yesterday.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE INDIAN WAR.

GENERALS SHERMAN, SHERIDAN AND CROOK.

WASHINGTON, July 24.

Gen. Crook sends Gen. Sheridan a dispatch dated 16th, via Fetterman 22d, as follows:

"I send in a courier today to carry in duplicates of my dispatch to Gen. Merritt, for fear the originals may not have reached their destination. I send a courier to Gen. Terry tonight to inform him that I will cooperate with him, and where to find me, and also giving what information I have in regard to the Indians.

It is my intention to move out after the hostiles as soon as Gen. Merritt gets here with the 5th, and shall not probably send in another courier unless something special should require me to do so. I am getting anxious about Merritt's ability to reach me soon, as the grass is getting very dry, and the Indians are liable to burn it any day."

Sheridan not to Take the Field.

NEW YORK, July 25.

A Chicago special says Gen. Sheridan does not know of being ordered to take the field against the Indians, and Washington dispatches state that Gen. Sherman considers that Sheridan can do more good where he is, and that he (Sherman) has not ordered Sheridan to remove his headquarters.

Making Ready to Repel an Attack.

A letter from Medicine Bow, Wyoming Territory, July 19, says preparations have been made there to repel an expected Indian raid on the place. Impromptu fortifications are erected around the station, and a town guard established. It is the principal depot of supplies for Fort Fetterman. A detachment of infantry arrived on the 19th, who with a cavalry company expected next day, would proceed to Fort Fetterman and Crook's corps.

FROM WASHINGTON.

CASE OF SECRETARY ROBESON.

The River and Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 25.

The president has intimated that he will refuse to sign the river and harbor bill upon the ground that its passage at this late day would be practically unavailing during the present season; that it would require at least 30 days to advertise and make the contracts and nearly as much time to carry them into effect, so that it would be October before work would commence; that in parts of the North and West, where some of the most important improvements are proposed, frost sets in about November.

Secretary Robeson to be Heard.

Secretary Robeson is to be heard today, before Glover's committee, which has abandoned its determination to request his impeachment, and now decides that he may be heard in defense of his official conduct.

The Belknap Trial.

The republican senators met in caucus at eleven to decide on the order of business to be followed. At noon the court of impeachment was opened and Mr. Carpenter commenced his argument, speaking from the desk which he occupied when a senator. He was listened to with marked attention by the senators, by a number of representatives on the floor and by well-filled galleries.

Silver Coin.

It is stated that the treasury will issue regulations today for the distribution of ten millions of silver coin provided in the silver act.

Arms Not to be Sold to the Indians.

The House promptly passed a bill introduced yesterday, by Gen. Hurlbut, of Illinois prohibiting the sale of improved government arms and ammunition to the Indians.

FROM NEW YORK.

ANOTHER LARGE DRY GOODS SALE.

Political Matters etc.

NEW YORK, July 25.

A dry goods sale commenced today by order of Parker, Wilder & Co., at the salesrooms of Townsend, Montant & Co. The goods offered consisted of flannels, blankets, tweeds, moltons and cotton goods from the principal mills and manufactories throughout the country. The whole lot consisted of ten thousand packages. Most of the great houses of the country were represented, and Western men purchased heavily.

Reduced Freights.

It was reported last night that the Erie and the Pennsylvania Central Railroad companies have reduced their Chicago rates for fourth-class freights to thirteen cents per cwt. But the New York Central, it is said will not come down to this price, as the figures are too low to show any profit for handling freights.

More Murders.

Carl Winkle cut the throat of John Tappa, yesterday, in Brooklyn, because the latter objected the former from a house for non-payment of rent.

John Brennan and three other roughs were arrested in Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon, for not only fatally beating a man in Brennan's rummery, but for setting a bull-dog on him, who tore the victim fearfully.

Democratic Politics.

The meeting to ratify the St. Louis nominations and platform, held at Irving Hall last night by the New York County anti-Tammany Democracy, was very largely attended. There were addresses by John P. Stockton, Samuel B. Garvin, Leon Abbott, Charles W. Brooke and letters from Abram S. Hewitt, Oswald Ottendorfer, Horatio Seymour, Samuel S. Cox, Samuel J. Randall, and other prominent democrats. The resolutions and speeches presented reform as the great issue, and declared that it could be secured only by the election of Tilden and Hendricks. It is believed the letter of Governor Tilden accepting the nomination for the presidency will be ready about the first of October.

The Herald is out strong for Manton Marble of the World for governor, and says he is the best candidate the democratic party of this state can nominate.

FALL RIVER.

The "News" speaks in very complimentary terms of the services of Rev. Dr. Talmage, in that city, on Sunday last. He preached twice in the Central Congregational church, and once in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal.

Number of baths taken at the Eight Rod Way bathing house for the week ending Saturday, 4,000;—313 by men, 2,907 boys, 194 women, and 584 girls.

Henry Willis Buffinton, son of Mr. Darius Buffinton, aged about 21 years, was drowned on Saturday afternoon, while bathing in the river a little above Slade's Ferry, on the Somerset shore. It appears that he waded out on a ledge of rock, and stepped off into deep water, and not knowing how to swim was drowned.

THE ART OF FLATTERY.

If flattery is to be grateful to a sensible and truth-loving man or woman, it must clearly conform to several conditions. As we have remarked, it must not be too broad, wholly setting at defiance the bounds of truth, but must be recognizable as an approximation to the truth. Thus the compliment bestowed should clearly point to a meritorious quality having an undisputed existence. Further, it should never be forced on a person in an obtrusive way. It should be couched in modest language, and not break violently on our attention in bald eulogistic epithets. And it should not be kept before our minds so as to arouse a full and embarrassing consciousness of the speaker's meaning, but rather appear as a transient element in a fugitive conversation. It is always better to let the praise be inferred from the language used than to declare it in direct terms. In this way it will be appreciated by a swift movement of feeling, while there will be no time for its arousing a painful self-consciousness. Once more, flattery is always more acceptable when it seems to be the product of the moment, and not the result of premeditation, for in this case it was a greater appearance of reality. Or if the speaker distinctly intends to indicate a deliberate wish to gratify, and so to show the exercise of forethought, the praise should be tendered with a certain delicate skill so as to assure the recipient of the giver's anxiety to make the offering as graceful as possible. The indirect way of flattery are also worth attending to. One may flatter a person by saying to his intimate friend—for instance, his wife, something highly eulogistic, which it would be difficult to say to himself directly. Another and still more useful method is to flatter by action instead of by words, that is, by treating people as if they had a certain kind of merit or excellence. Thus we may studiously consult the taste of a lady whose esthetic judgment we wish to extol, or may enlist the cooperation of a person in a benevolent scheme, and thus indirectly attribute to him a generous disposition. The advantage of this last mode of flattering is that it escapes the necessity of even a slight verbal untruthfulness. To appeal to a person's opinion is not the same thing as to declare him to be wise, even though he may be readily disposed to conjecture from the former that we mean the latter too.—[Saturday Review.

AT LAST, AT LAST!

She is here at last. We have been expecting her with fear and trembling. The agony is upon us. Oh my, oh my! The woman with a voice like the squeak of a rusty hinge is what we refer to—the inveterate piano pounder and pourer forth of notes that would never pass current in a musical world. We had hoped she would stay at home for one Summer. We had prayed that we might be so blessed. We began even to have hope, when lo, early yesterday morning, we heard her well known voice. We grew pale and listened, as if for the approach of a dreadful enemy. We felt as if we discerned the first symptoms of a terrible disease. We listened again, with a hand behind our ear. Yes—no—yes, good Heavens, it was her voice. First the notes came low, like the sound of a distant saw-mill. Then they rose, shrill and sharp, like the whistle of Boreas beneath the kitchen door; then the singer let herself out, when, blood and thunder, the air seemed filled with howling demons and—ugh, it was terrible. We dashed our head against the wall, and beat our breast and stamped on the floor, and stuffed our ears full of cotton. But it was useless. The notes of that voice which had been worn threadbare in a country choir rang out on the air—shrill and strong and cracked and sheet irony—and we gave ourselves up to despair.

What is to be done? Who will start a subscription for the purpose of sending the screecher to Europe? We will gladly head it with a snug sum. Who will marry her? Who will buy her off? Who, even, will drown her, or get up an amateur performance of Othello, with a hero in the title role that will play the smothering scene with a reality that will lay Desdamona out completely. Do, for the sake of afflicted visitors do, somebody, smother that country screecher, quick.

HOW NIAGARA ALMOST RAN DRY.

On March 26th, 1848, a remarkable phenomenon occurred. The preceding winter had been intensely cold, and the ice formed on Lake Erie was unusually thick. In the warm days of early spring, this mass of ice was loosened around the shores of the lake and detached from them. During the forenoon of the day named, a stiff easterly wind moved it up the lake. A little before sunset, the wind chopped suddenly round and blew a gale from the west. This brought the vast field of ice back again with such tremendous force that it filled in the neck of the lake and its outlet so as to form a very effective dam, that caused a remarkable diminution in the outflow of the water. Of course it needed but little time for the Falls to drain off the water below this dam. The consequence was, that on the morning of the following day, the river was nearly half gone. The American channel had dwindled to a deep and narrow creek. The British channel seemed to have been smitten with a quick consumption, and to be fast passing away. Far up from the head of Goat Island and out into the Canadian rapids, and from the foot of Goat Island out beyond the old Tower to the deep channel of the Horseshoe fall, the water was gone. The rocks were bare, black and forbidding. The roar of Niagara had subsided to a moan. This extraordinary syncope of the waters lasted all the day, and night closed over the strange scene. But during the night the dam gave way, and the next morning the river was restored in all its strength, beauty and majesty.—[From an Illustrated Paper on "Niagara," in the "Mid-summer Holiday Number" of Scribner.

A STRANGE DEATH.—A dog showing strong signs of madness, rushed into the house of Albert Baker, on Orms street, Providence, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Baker, who was alone in the room. The dog stood still and looked at her a minute, and then fell over on the floor. As he did not get up again, Mrs. Baker gathered courage to rush by him out of the room. She soon secured help, and returning found the dog dead on the floor just where he fell.—[Prov. Journal.

PATENT PARABOLA SPECTACLES.

The advantages of the Parabola Glasses over the old form of Spectacles, are a greater density of material, perfect surfaces, and Parabolic form. These qualities, united, form the most perfect of lenses. In the perfect transmission of light, joined to their peculiar form the wearer of the Parabola Spectacles is enabled to prosecute the most trying labors of the eye without those distressing results which follow the use of all other glasses. A peculiar and important feature in these Spectacles is witnessed in cases where young persons have been obliged to resort to the use of glasses, from some physical debility having affected temporarily their vision. In such cases the eye soon regains its healthy powers, and the glasses can be laid aside without having had the least tendency to affect the eyes so as to demand their continuous use.

[From Dr. George McClellan, Philadelphia.]

I have recommended the "Parabola Spectacles" to several of my patients, and have received from most of them warm encomiums upon the article. They assert that these glasses do not fatigue the eyes by long use, as is apt to be the case with the double convex Spectacles, while the command of the eyes over the object of vision is much greater. This corresponds with the opinion any optician would form from his knowledge of the principles upon which those glasses are adjusted—so as to converge the rays coming from different quarters to the same focal distance. The eyes can be turned to a considerable extent, therefore, under these glasses, without involving the necessity of moving the head.

TO PHYSICIANS AND INVALIDS.

The flexible, self-applying Electric Disks, Dr. Garratt's invention, make without care or trouble, "gentle and prolonged applications" of very fine primary currents. They prove sufficiently active and durable for this peculiar method.

While worn by night or day for cold rheumatic neuralgia, lameness, weakness, or chronic pains, the disk is sure to generate and apply its constant multipolar electric action. Each metal acts as element and pole. They are wired avelanche for deep polar inworking. As shown by the expert judges, and in practice, these disks excel all other attempts at this sort of appliance. Nothing like them.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1876.

THE DAY.

The present house of representatives has put four thousand bills on the calendar during its existence, which has a bad look for the cause of retrenchment and reform.

The president is reported to have said that he should veto the river and harbor appropriation bill in whatever shape it might be presented for his approval. In its present shape it ought to be killed by somebody and if President Grant will do it, he shall have our thanks.

More than one thousand citizens of Lowell have signed a petition to Gen. Butler asking him to consent to be a candidate for congress. So far as we can judge at this distance, Ben. is perfectly willing, and so the prayer of the politioners is likely to be granted. Massachusetts politics are mysterious and past finding out.

We are no longer to enjoy the services of a special police officer to enforce the liquor law in this city. The board of Aldermen this morning abolished the office, thus throwing the responsibility on the city marshal and regular police authorities. Thus one step at least has been taken towards the promised retrenchment by the new city government.

The impeachment trial of ex-Secretary Belknap is drawing to a close, but fails to attract as much interest as might have been expected from so important a case. No one doubts the guilt of the accused party, and yet it is conceded that his conviction is not certain, as there are many technicalities in the way. Whatever may be the result of the formal trial the result is practically the same. Belknap is degraded, and will ever stand before the country as a man who took bribes and betrayed the interests committed to his charge. If he escapes conviction he will not, thereby, in the least avoid the odium that justly rests upon a man guilty of the vilest political offences.

Sergeant Foster, we are sorry to announce, received a dispatch last evening from Washington to discontinue his duties here after taking the midnight observation, July 31st, and to report at Washington with all the property of the government in his possession. This is brought about from the lack of funds to carry on the signal service owing to the obstinacy of the democratic members of Congress. No station in this vicinity will be more missed than the one here, and mariners will regret to learn of its discontinuance. Mr. Foster, the gentleman in charge, has made many friends while here who will regret to lose his genial company.

Everything relating to city water works is of interest, just now, to the people of Newport. Some idea of the cost of running water, to families using it may be found in the statement of the Providence Journal that in our sister city the people can have all the water they want, delivered in the topmost stories of their office or dwellings, in unfailing supply, for the rather moderate tax of one cent a barrel,—about one-tenth of what it costs to have it drawn from a well, pumped from a cistern or scooped from the Blackstone, to say nothing of the increased safety and convenience of having the important element always obedient to the turn of a faucet. The sum a man would expend in digging an uncertain well would supply him with water here for a lifetime.

THE YACHT AMERICA.

The excitement attending the dreadful tragedy of the Mohawk, instead of subsiding seems to be on the increase, and the long, earnestly discussed question of "centre" and keel is likely to be revived.

Under these circumstances, we have thought it might prove interesting, to reprint, in part, an article published some years ago relative to the America, which achieved so signal a triumph in the British waters in the presence of the Queen and millions of others. She was built by Steers of Long Island and never met her equal.

Would it not be well to return to her lines and model? We should then be safe against "turn turtles."

The letter was written by Col. John Winthrop, one of our summer residents.

It is now some eight or ten weeks ago, that I was invited by Lord de Blaquiere to join a small party, in running down from Florence to pass a day on board of the America, then lying in the port of Leghorn, two hours and a half distant. On the way down, I had a great deal of conversation with Lord de Blaquiere, in reference to the vessel, her rig, and her performances. Her greatest run, he said, had been from Malta to Albania, when during the entire distance she had averaged more than ten knots, making in some thirty odd hours, what was ordinarily accomplished by other yachts in five days. She was dry and easy in the heaviest weather, and had never carried away a spar, or even a rope of the slightest importance. She was off Malta in the heaviest gale that had been known there for fifteen or twenty years, in February last, during which an Austrian ship with all hands on board was lost in sight of Valotta, the British fleet sustained damage to the extent of forty thousand pounds, and the neighboring shores of the Mediterranean were strewed with wrecks. She rode through the whole of the brunt of this hurricane, and came into Valotta harbor towards the conclusion of it with flying colors and perfectly uninjured. He stated to me, it was predicted to him, before leaving England, that the first gale would carry her down; in which case, as he gallantly said, he would go down with her. But, so far from these predictions having been verified, he assured me that he could not trust himself in a safer craft. He had been in her many months, in every variety of weather, and in speed, seagoing qualities, and safety, considered her unmatched.

By this time we had left the leaning tower of Pisa with its Baptistry and Duomo, in the distance; shot through the marshy district of the Maremma, despite the rushing railway still numerously stocked with the wild boar; and the low shores of Tuscany in the immediate neighborhood of Leghorn were at hand. There, at a distance of about four miles, on the glittering surface of that beautiful inland sea, unruffled by the slightest breath of wind, with her low hull, raking masts, and white sails, lay the peerless America!

At my exclamation of delight, the whole of our little party instinctively turned their heads to catch the first glimpse of the famous clipper. But, in vain I endeavored to point her out. My eye had caught only, and been fixed upon her. Theirs, unused to yachts and yachting, in which they felt the greatest interest, but of which they neither knew, nor pretended to know, anything, were wandering about among the ships, barques and brigs, in search of what I thought the only conspicuous object there, but which was too small to attract their attention. It was very curious. Even after getting halfway from the landing place to the yacht's anchorage, a beautiful and most agreeable English woman pointed to an old fashioned, over-grown Greek brig, with kettle bottom, and tumble in side, supposing it to be the America. It seemed as if the vessel which had achieved so much renown, must be a very large one, and I really believe that one or two expected to see something like a ship of the line.

You may imagine my delighted surprise, on first coming along-side, to perceive, at a glance, that all the stories which I had read and heard of "changes in the rig," "new masts," "new sails," "new rails" or "standing bulwarks," &c., &c., were totally unfounded!—And here I may as well dispose of all these reports and "well authenticated facts," by stating that she remains precisely as Lord de Blaquiere purchased her, in rig, sails, t[rim], hull, interior fitting up, and decorations, even to the very paint. Although repeatedly urged, her spirited and liberal minded owner refuses to make any change, however slight, with the exception which I am about to mention. This consists in slight iron stanchions, extending from stem to stern, connected together by man-ropes except at the gang-ways. It forms a railing, is used simply for safety in heavy weather, and when in port, to prevent any of the crowds who visit her from tumbling overboard, and may be unshipped at pleasure.

I am happy to add that the beautifully carved eagle still remains to adorn the stern, attracting the attention of all by its graceful proportions and spirited action, if I may so use the word.

THE BOAT RACE.

To the Editor of the Daily News:—

In your NEWS of yesterday I noticed an item entitled "A Boat Race," in which the sail boat, Pester, had the honor of winning a silk penant.

Now my object in this is to deny her right to the flag for she did not win it as I can prove by persons of responsibility who, not only took the time of the boats but heard the judges remark that they had made a mistake in the time and had given the penant to the wrong parties and that it rightfully belonged to sail boat Fearless, Capt. Gash.

The judges proposed to give Mr. Gash a penant similar to the one that the Pester holds but he would not accept it, he claims that the whole proceedings were a farce and would warn all boatmen never to enter any race where they have persons for judges whose abilities consist of ungentlemanly conduct and lack of scholarship.

The figures below gives the correct time of both boats showing that the Fearless won the race by four minutes without time allowance.

NEWPORT, July 26, 1876.

LITTLE COMPTON.

Blue fish are taken in large quantities along shore just now, and there is plenty of sport for the fishermen.

The crops have suffered severely from the dry weather and some of them were too far gone to be saved by the recent rains. Potatoes especially are a failure, but the yield of corn promises to be a fair one.

The barn of Alexander Simmons was struck by lightning on Sunday, but the damage was not serious.

NEW BEDFORD.

The Standard says, in spite of the hard times through the energy of the pastor Rev. T. R. Green, the Pleasant street M. E. Society has within a few months liquidated the entire church debt, $6500, and within a year has purchased a large new organ at a cost of $4000, which is also paid for with the exception of a small balance.

The assessors of Fairhaven, report the valuation of real estate this year at $1,080,400, and personal $318,300; total $1,398,700. The number of polls is 719; rate of taxation $16.25 on a thousand, and amount of taxes assessed $25,264.

A sad drowning case occurred at Oxford village, Fairhaven, about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Lizzie May, an 18 months' old daughter of Mr. John S. Tinkham, was at play in the yard with two older children, while her father was in the house and her mother calling on a neighbor. The little one wandered away from the others, and it is supposed attempted to play around a large tub filled with water, into which she fell. She made no outcry, and the first intimation the father had of anything being the matter, was an older girl bringing the little one into the house in her arms and saying, "Father, Lizzie wont stand up." The father took the baby in his arms and to his horror found that she was lifeless, all efforts to resuscitate her proving unavailing.

The announcement that a Mr. Baker has founded a college of cookery in Massachusetts will b[e] read with pleasure.—[Chicago Times.

The Chicago Tribune denies the report that Bob Lincoln is to take the stump for Tilden, remarking that "no son of Abraham Lincoln could by any inducement, be prevailed upon to support for President a man who pronounced the administration of his father a failure."

The death rate of New York is reported to be three times as large as that of London, over twice as large as that of Paris, nearly twice as large as that of St. Louis, Charleston and Boston, eight per cent. more than Brooklyn and seven per cent. more than Philadelphia. In mortality the Empire City occupies an unenviable notoriety.

—Page & Rowley's dray ran away on Commercial wharf, yesterday afternoon, and broke the carriage pole. It collided with Mr. Burnside's team, knocking the latter out and injuring him seriously. Dr. Wheeler was summoned who found several of his ribs broken. He is believed to be injured internally.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Board of Aldermen met in their room at the City Hall this morning at 10.30. His honor the mayor presided.

There were present Messrs. J. C. Stoddard, J. T. Langley, J. B. Brown, H. D. DeBlois and Geo. Denniston, Jr., a full board.

The records of the last meeting were read by Benj. Marsh, 2nd., city clerk.

The case of J. H. Rowley who had been summoned to appear and give reason why his hack license, he being a non-resident, should not be revoked, was taken up. Wm. P. Sheffield appeared as counsel for Mr. Rowley and claimed that the city had no right to impose conditions on non-residents, in these civil matters, that are different from those resting upon actual citizens. He raised the constitutional question and said he should carry the case through the courts if he found it necessary.

Mr. F. B. Peckham, the city solicitor, asked that the matter be postponed for a week, as he was not prepared to go on with the case. It was voted to refer the case to the next regular meeting of the board.

The petition of Isadore Schuster for license to keep a house of entertainment was taken up. On motion the petitioner had leave to withdraw. The names of those persons who have applied for liquor licenses were read, the list being the same as was published last week.

On motion licenses were granted to all the applicants.

Col. Wm. B. Swan, who had presented a petition which was informally laid on the table without being read, asked that the paper be returned to him.

Instead of complying with this request, it was voted that the petition be received and read which was done.

The petition of James G. Bennett, for license to be granted to the polo club was presented and the petition granted, the fee being fixed at one dollar.

Several licenses were granted to parties to keep billiard and bagatelle tables, the fee charged being $25.00 for each, the lowest sum which the statute allows.

A resolution was adopted to the effect that when liquor licenses have been granted, unless they shall be taken out and paid for within forty eight hours after the expiration of old licenses, should they now hold them, the grant shall be void.

The question then came up as to the appointment of a special officer to enforce the liquor law in this city. Alderman DeBlois thought it the duty of the city marshal and police officers to enforce this as well as other laws and moved that the official office be abolished.

Alderman Stoddard took the same view of the case and thought the regular officers should attend to this duty as part of their legitimate work.

The resolution abolishing the office was adopted.

NOTES FROM NEW YORK.

AN EXQUISITE MONTHLY—"H. H" ON BETHLEHEM—MISS FIDELIA BRIDGES—DR. HOLLAND ON DEAD BEATS—THE SOCIAL EVIL—LITERARY ACTIVITY.

[Letter from Fuller-Walker to the News.]

Nothing more exquisite in the shape of an American magazine has ever appeared than the August number of Scribner's Monthly. It is really a rare work of art, not to mention the interesting literary matter which crowds its pages; a work of art creditable to America and our centennial year. Such exquisite and beautiful wood engravings, so delicately executed, we have never seen elsewhere. The series of illustrations in Mrs. Helen Hunt's "Hide-and-seek town" article would be enough of themselves to make the reputation of any magazine, but in addition to these we have in this number Niagara Falls, "A Bird Medley," and "On the iron trail," each profusely illuminated with engravings which are actually photographic in excellence. Such a work of art calls for an unqualified commendation; as an educator of taste and sentiment it cannot be but powerful, and deserves to find a place in every home in the land. We shall look over our files of English papers for their expressions of delight, surprise, and approval. London Society, The Cornhill, and other English magazines, never attempted to give their readers such pictures.

The resources of American scenery, as vast and grand as the continent, are amply illustrated in this issue of Scribner's. Mrs. Hunt's article on the New Hampshire town, probably Bethlehem, which is two miles from the station, while the village is built on a plateau or ridge of deep rich soil, which connects the White and Franconia ranges of mountains, and commands striking views of both; the article on Niagara; and the article by Mrs. A. C. Wheeler of the World on Kansas, and Colorado, called "On the Iron Trail," are sure to take us into different worlds among people of dissimilar civilizations. If one will compare the article on Bethlehem, N. H., in the book called "Popular Resorts, and How to Reach Them," by John B. Batchelder, with those in Mrs. Hunt's "Hide-and-Seek Town," he will find the villages are one and the same. There is no end to the illustrations which might be given on Niagara. Those presented were remarkably beautiful.

MISS FIDELIA BRIDGES.

Those who read "A Bird Medley" in the August Scribner's will at on[ce] recognize the illustration as coming from the pencil of Miss Fidelia Bridges, the modest and retiring Brooklyn artist, whose sketches of bird life on the sea shore, in pastures, and tree tops, have charmed all visitors to the National Academy of Design. Miss Bridges lives with her mother, and uses a back parlor for a studio. She spends much of the summer time along the coast of Long Island, and New Jersey, sketching.

She is seldom seen in public. We remember meeting her one evening in Brooklyn, at a reception of congenial souls, where Louisa M. Atwell of Boston, Maurace D. Conway of London, Prof. Griffis of Japan, and other celebraties, were the lions of the evening. Miss Bridges was dressed in Quaker simplicity, a brown silk, with a frill of lace at the throat. Tall, straight, with keen black eyes, smoothly combed hair, she looked as unlike an artist as one could well imagine. But then no one would ever take Mrs. H. B. Stowe, or Miss Alcott for authors, Miss Maria Mitchell for an astronomer, Mrs. Mary Putnam Jacobs for a doctor, or Anna Dickinson for an actress. Miss Bridges' pictures of birds in the current Scribner's are simply delightful.

DR. HOLLAND ON DEAD BEATS.

In his Topics of the Time, Dr. Holland, the conductor of Scribner's, has an article on "The Dead Beat Nuisance," which contains far more truth than poetry. Like all men who have a public reputation in New York, Dr. Holland speaks from experience. He has been victimized on more than one occasion. As he says many of these people profess to come from the south. Some of them are women, and while they stop at home in a nice hotel or boarding house, they send out their daughters to beg. We have in mind the case of one Mattie Sheridan, as she called herself, who made it a business going about the city, obtaining money under false pretences. She was a pale-faced, wild-eyed, hump-back little woman, who would certainly win sympathy from her looks and manner. She represented herself as originally from the south, she wrote for the papers (who does not?) especially for the Hearth and Home, since dead, and she expected remittances from Chicago, a mighty poor city to get money from. She was even a distant (very) relative of Gen. Sheridan. Her mother was an invalid, and she was often sick. She wanted twenty-seven dollars, for a couple of weeks, to pay a board bill. Dr. Holland was one of the victims of this Miss Mattie Sheridan. In another instance she called upon "Aunt Fanny," and wanted the modest sum of one hundred dollars to go to Philadelphia with. She had a chance to open a centennial boarding house. Fortunately for "Aunt Fanny," Miss Sheridan's fame had preceded her. There are a plenty of people who would like one hundred dollars for a trip to Philadelphia.

In the matter of "social evil," in these same "Topics," Dr. Holland takes strong ground against the proposed regulation, after the manner of Vienna, Berlin, Paris and London. And Dr. Holland is right. The movement in New York, ostensibly originating with the grand jury, is probably a political movement, agitated by men who wish to create a new bureau, to be attached to the board of health, like the so-called Vaccine Bureau, that round and good fat salaries may be found for a large number of young doctors, sons or friends of the politicians, who otherwise cannot get a living. If the social evil is to be "regulated," of course there must be a host of M. D.'s to regulate it, and this involves an organization, places, salaries, etc. Dr. Holland's protest is timely and needed, but he, and all other men, must be wary, as the politicians will get the laws passed for their own selfish ends, and the statute books will be disgraced.

THE LITERARY WORLD

appears to be unusually active at this season of the year. Everybody is writing for the magazines and papers; everybody appears to be ambitious to secure fame and gold. In New York one is constantly coming cheek by jowl with persons bearing such well known names as Bayard Taylor, Richard B. Kimball, Edgar Fawcett, Jenny June, Mary B. Dodge, J. S. Siddons, R. H. Stoddard, "Gar" of the Times, and Martha J. Lamb. Mr. Taylor, in his scanty and stiffly starched yellow linen suit, can be seen dodging about Broadway and Bond street, with a fan, a red puffy face and pockets full of papers, alias H. Greeley. Mr. Stoddard has an able and remarkable poem in the last Scribner's. It reads like a chapter in some universal geography. By the bye every one appears to be trying his hand at centennial poems and odes. The latest candidate for poetical honors in this way is Mr. Kinihan Cornwallis, a lawyer of Wall street and an Englishman. He printed two poems in the Chicago Times, on the 4th of July. The whole reading world will be delighted to know that Frank Leslie has secured "Eli Perkins" and Joaquin Miller.

New York, July 24, 1876.

Every intelligent person understands that medicine does not cure disease, except indirectly, by arousing the curative power of nature. If the Health-Lift develops this vital force—this vis medicatrix naturæ, as the doctors call it—then it must cure disease, and the cure will not be mere relief, but constitutional, thorough and permanent.

AFTER THEM.—The Boston Traveller says: It is understood that the Board of Assessors has assessed the estates of forty or fifty wealthy "tax dodgers," who are known to have been living in the city on the first of May, the assessment amounting to some fifteen or twenty millions of dollars. This has been done under the advice of eminent legal counsel, and it is probable that the highest court in the Commonwealth will be called upon to settle a question in which every honest tax payer has interest.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

A writer in one of our standard medical journals says: "I was cured of Dropsy in one month by using HUNT'S REMEDY." All Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organ, are cured by HUNT'S REMEDY. jy26-n&j-1w

WHAT CAN BE CURED

Need not be endured, although what can't must be. Among the bodily ills susceptible of complete removal by that benign tonic and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, are general debility, malarial fevers, constipation, dyspepsia, liver disorder, and nervousness. Its remedial capabilities are, however, by no means limited to these maladies. Its properties as a blood depurent render it extremely serviceable in expelling the acrid impurities which produce those painful disorders, rheumatism and gout, and its invigorating and mildly stimulating effect upon the kidneys and bladder constitute it a useful medicine for impelling those organs to a complete performance of their functions when they are weak and inactive. In fact, there is scarcely any disease of which weakness is an accompaniment, which this admirable medicine cannot be used with advantage. jy24-(w-n&j

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, Water-brash, Sick Headache, Costiveness, palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of food, low spirits, general debility, etc., yet since the introduction of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER we believe there is no case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. 30,000 dozen sold last year without one case of failure reported. Go to your druggist, James H. Taylor, and get a Sample Bottle for ten cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents. je21

DIED.

GLADDING.—In Providence, 24th inst., suddenly, Mrs. Ann, wife of the late Capt. Thomas D. Gladding, of this city, aged 76 years.

RICHARDS.—In this city, 25th inst., Mr. Samuel Richards, aged 70 years.

BOUNTIFUL NATURE AFFORDS NO FINER SPECIFIC for skin diseases than Sulphur, a fact that is clearly proven by the action upon the cuticle afflicted with eruptions or ulcerous sores, of that supreme purifier, GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP. jy26-n&j 1w

USE THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER,—A perfect dentifrice.—Its action on the teeth is specific, removes tartar and discoloration, arrests decay, and keeps them sound, clean and white. It hardens the gums, sweetens the breath, and containing no acid, cannot injure the enamel. Its constant use is recommended to all, but specially to those who having good teeth wish to preserve them. 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Sold by druggists. mar3-eodn-eowj

Important to Persons Visiting New York or the Centennial.

The Grand Union Hotel, New York, opposite the Grand Central Depot, has over 350 elegantly furnished rooms, Elevator, steam, and all improvements. European plan. Carriage hire is saved, as baggage is taken to and from the depot free. The restaurants supplied with the best. Guests can live better for less money at the Grand Union than at any other first class hotel. Stages and cars pass the hotel constantly to all parts of the city and to Philadelphia Depot. feb12

At every quarterly rendering of bills he feels warmed toward, and can safely thank beforehand, that admirable class of people scattered through all social ranks and from large to limited degree of monied ability who look upon debts contracted as debts of real honor, hastening (often with much personal inconvenience) to pay them when due. All honor to the great souled company and may their numbers increase.

Of that fearful class who are too honest to steal and too proud to beg—who by tender appeal or untrue statement get trusted and never pay—what can be said? Standing on the threshold of a new century of national existence may they change their ways, emulating only the nobler qualities of the emblematic eagle not following his baser leading as a bird of prey.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

July being very warm, temperature playing around the nineties, and as I have always the well wishes of my fellow citizens in view, and want all to enjoy the largest liberty, both temporal and spiritual, I have arranged an entire change of programme, which is as follows:—

I offer for sale the following

CARRIAGES:

1 very nice, new pony phaeton, with canopy, newest style; price $250.
1 nice, new pony phaeton, no canopy, newest style; price $175.
1 top phaeton buggy, new and very nice, eight of same style been sold by me the past year; price $200.
1 new carryall, warranted; price $175.
1 new two-seated wagon; price $155.
1 new Bradley carryall, very nice and also very light, warranted; price $450.
1 new road wagon, warranted; price $150.
2 new box buggies, with tops that take off, warranted; price $200.
1 new jump-seat carryall, very nicely painted and a first rate carriage in every way, warranted; price $260.
1 new carryall, beach wagon style, light, yet strong, warranted; price $200.
2 new express wagons.
1 very nice dog cart, reversible seat, with pole and shafts, cost $700; price $225.
1 nice two-horse Victoria, made to order, cost $800, in good order; price $150.
1 rumble-seat phaeton, with canopy, made to order, cost $450; price $160.
1 low pony phaeton; price $65.
1 Brownell-made carryall, in first rate order, newly painted and varnished; price $125.
1 good carryall; price $100.
1 open buggy, in good order and newly painted; price $55.
1 open buggy, in first rate running order; price $65.
1 top Brewster buggy, in good order, new steel tires and just painted; price $110.
1 top buggy, just painted, in good order; price $75.
4 uncommon express wagons, part new and part old, but very serviceable wagons and cheap, if wanted, as they will be sold less than cost; price $65 each.
1 covered wagon, with side seats, will carry 8 persons, door behind part of wagon, in good order; price $85.
1 side-seated wagon, with pole, will carry 10 persons; in first rate order; price $100.
1 phaeton top buggy, not a new one, but in very fair order, newly painted; price $55.
1 very nice turn under box top buggy, top takes off, with pole and shafts, cost when new $650; price $250.
1 good road wagon, in first rate order, and just painted, carmine gear; price $90.
1 six-seated rockaway, with pole, in the best of order, not new, but just as good as many of the new ones made now, curtains have inside pads for cold weather and roll up for warm weather; price $150.
2 half-top barouches, in good running order and will earn a good deal of money if bought soon, and the price will be made right to the parties who mean business.
1 extension top carryall, with pole, and very roomy, will carry six persons. Just the carriage for people who prefer comfort to style; price $175.
1 large wagon, will carry 80 persons if necessary, or would make a smaller wagon, as the running gear is first rate. No price affixed but will sell at a loss, as I have no room to store the same and want to sell.
1 jump-seat carryall, in first rate order; newly painted and cheap at $110.
1 phaeton top buggy, in good order; price $100.

I shall be pleased to dispose of the above for cash or approved paper, but don't, my friends, expect to get a new carriage for an old price. All the above carriages that are new will be warranted, as we don't do any jockeying and try to do as we agree.

HOUSE PAINTING

Is dull just now, will take jobs at a very low price and warrant to give satisfaction, both as to labor and material. Would also say that we are still carrying on the

CARRIAGE PAINTING

IN ALL ITS BRANCHES,

and can now give despatch to all carriages entrusted to our care. We also have storage room for carriages, which will be taken at fair rates, and stand in good dry rooms.

Now if my friends, who have been in such a hurry to have their work done the past season—to say nothing of those who have been accommodated several seasons ago—will use the same diligence in settling their accounts, they will very much oblige their humble servant,

Tax Assessors' Notice.

THE ASSESSORS of taxes of the city of Newport, hereby give notice that they will meet and be in session in the common council chamber in the City Hall, in said Newport, every day, (Sundays excepted,) from and including Monday, July 17th, 1876, to and including Saturday, July 29th, 1876, from nine o'clock, A. M., to twelve o'clock, M., and from two o'clock to five o'clock P. M., for the purpose of assessing and apportioning on the inhabitants of said city, and the ratable property therein, the tax ordered and levied by the city council of said city on the 13th day of June, 1876.

Every person and body corporate liable to taxation in the premises, is hereby notified and required to bring in to said assessors, within the time or times, and at the place of the meeting and session of said assessors as above designated, a true and exact account of all his ratable estate, describing and specifying the value of every parcel of his real and personal estate.

The General Statutes of Rhode Island provide that "every person bringing in any such account, shall make oath before some one of the assessors, that the amount by him exhibited contains to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true and full account and valuation of all his ratable estate, and whoever neglects or refuses to bring in such account, if over taxed shall have no remedy therefor." Executors, Administrators, Guardians and Trustees are hereby notified that all the foregoing applies to them and to Trust estates as well as to other persons and property.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1876.

WHAT IT IS TO BE A RADICAL.

The name makes little difference. But to be a radical is to be, generally, one of these three characters:

1st. A person who has properly not thought at all, but who takes feeling for thought; who believes and teaches only what he happens to like. Such are free lovers, opponents of capital punishment, and other sentimentalists.

2d. A person who thinks, but whose thought is not just. To this class belong the transcendentalists, the liberal theologians, the "currency doctors," the Keeley motor people, and persons generally who propose to run the world upon a little air and cold water.

3d. A person who is studying the ways of social development, trying to find out what are their better tendencies and what their worse; and who is trying, according to his skill, to aid the one and to check the other.

And we, who belong to this last class, may first ask what people mean when they talk about reforming the world. Do they mean that it is a possible thing—that human character and circumstances are improvable by the right means, at some indefinite future time? Do they mean that it is a thing near at hand, that the world may be improved at once and radically? Do they mean that it has improved, as a matter of history, or that t is likely to improve, as a matter of evolution?—[Titus Munson Coan, in The Galaxy or August.

At the outbreak of the revolution the Continental Congress ascertained approximately the population of the thirteen colonies, in order that the burdens of the war might not fall too heavily upon any section. The total population was estimated at 2,250,000, exclusive of 500,000 slaves at the south. In 1870 the nation which the representatives of these colonies founded was the fifth of the great empires of the world in respect to population, and it is now undoubtedly the fourth. The Chinese empire in 1870 had 477,500,000 inhabitants; the British empire, 174,200,000; the Russian empire, 76,500,000; the German empire, 40,200,000; the United States, 38,558,371. The average increase in the aggregate population since 1870 in the fifteen states in which a census has been taken is 16 per cent., and at the same rate of increase the total population in 1875 would be 44,675,000, while that of the German empire according to the recent census is 42,757,812. During sixty years (1800-60) the population of the United States increased 593 per cent.; that of England and Wales, 121 per cent., and that of France, 37 per cent.

Cincinnati does not require any more parks or avenues, and those that are unfinished should remain so; an unfinished avenue gives a city a growing appearance.—[Cincinnati Commercial.] That is cheerful philosophy to apply to the Brooklyn bridge and the Washington monument.—[Boston Post.

Sewing Machines.

SINGER.

The fact that THE SALES OF THE SINGER MACHINE ARE MORE THAN THE COMBINED SALES OF ALL OTHERS; and that you seldom if ever, find a second-hand SINGER MACHINE for sale, is a stronger argument of its superiority than anything your friends can tell you about a machine that they have, when they know nothing about any other make. Customers are ALWAYS satisfied with the SINGER which cannot be said of any other machine in the market. MACHINES TO LET.

Geo. A. Pritchard, Agent, 90 Thames St. jy24

THE SUPERIORITY OF THE

REMINGTON

Sewing Machine

Is acknowledged by competent judges in the following particulars:

1. It is constructed on the soundest mechanical principles.
2. It is made with the best material by the best workmen.
3. Its wearing surface is more evenly distributed than that of other shuttle machines.
4. It has no harsh jarring motions.
5. It runs much lighter, stiller, and with less wear than other shuttle machines.
6. There is less wear on the needle bar and cam than in other machines.
7. Less motion is given to the shaft, carrying the needle bar and feed than in other machines.
8. The feed is positive, silent and automatic.
9. The length of the stitch is more easily regulated.
10. The needle is more easily threaded. There are no holes for the thread to pass through, but the eye of the needle.
11. There is no wear or strain on the thread to set it firmly in the cloth.
12. It has no objectional levers, no heavy rotary cams, no noisy cog wheels, which are always gumming or breaking.
13. It is so constructed that it can run twice the speed, do double the work and last twice as long as other shuttle machines.

MILL!

ATTENTION is invited to this improved mill, as surpassing all others in Simplicity, Efficiency, Symmetry and Economy. Recent improvements have reduced the friction joints from 60 to only 4, and being provided with patent lubricating cups, it may run thirty days by once oiling. It may be cheaply mounted, (the smaller mill costing only $55.00), or by an artistic tower it may be set to become an ornament as well as an invaluable convenience at every suburban residence. I would be pleased to attend those in want, or refer to engineer at Torpedo Station, whose practical experience will enable him to explain its merits more fully.

GEO. B. WEAVER.

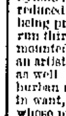

Having removed my place of business from Commercial Wharf to No. 19 BROADWAY for the better convenience of my patrons, and arranged to continue my repair department (thus protecting the implements I sell), and to offer all goods appropriate to the wants of Farmers, Gardeners and Citizens (in my line), I would respectfully solicit continued patronage. I offer Wilson's and Brighton as the standard fertilizers. Guano, Bone and Plaster constantly in stock. The Archimedian, Charter Oak, Excelsior and Philadelphia Lawn Mowers for man or horse. Plows of all kinds. Harrows, Rollers, Barrows, small tools, &c., &c. Please call and consult catalogues of the leading dealers in larger cities. Our prices are as low.
